It is that time of year when giving thanks is top of mind. The holiday season, and Thanksgiving in particular, causes us to think about all of the special things in our lives and express gratitude for them. This is a favorite time of year for many, in large part because we are surrounded by loved ones and visibly reminded of all that we have to be grateful for.

If you're like me, you wish this feeling could last all year long. Just imagine feeling proud, thankful, and joyful on an ongoing basis, not only during the holiday season.

A major step in that direction is developing an "Attitude of Gratitude." Life is better if you develop an attitude of gratitude. But what exactly does that mean and how do we do it?

An attitude of gratitude means making it a habit to express thankfulness and appreciation in all parts of your life, on a regular basis, for both the big and small things alike. If you concentrate on what you have, you'll always have more. If you concentrate on what you don't have, you'll never have enough.

Thank You

The words "Thank You" cannot express our appreciation for the many acts of kindness and condolences shown to us during the passing of our loved ones, Lady Vivian V. Tillman and Mrs. Edna Gullatt. The many cards, flowers and gifts of love have deeply touched us and we are encouraged that each of you were there for us during this difficult time. We are grateful and very thankful for each of you. May God continue to bless each of you for your support.

*Love,
Rev. Thurmond, Sis. Lawanda and the Tillman Family*
