Choose God's Standards, Not the World's

Living above society's moral decline involves the choices we make regarding our conversations, the way we dress, what we read, and the TV shows and movies we watch. It also has to do with the level of integrity with which we live our personal lives, interact with other people and conduct ourselves in our businesses or professions.

As Christians, we need to encourage one another to live by godly standards and resist the pull of the world. A well-known quote offers some good advice: 'Watch your thoughts, for they become words. Watch your words, for they become actions. Watch your actions, for they become habits. Watch your habits, for they become character. Watch your character, for it becomes your destiny.'

One of God's great gifts to mankind is the power of choice. If we want to enjoy the blessings He has for us, we need to make lifestyle choices that align with His Word and are consistent with the values of His Word, not choices reflecting the constantly eroding values of the world.

I urge you to make a decision to serve God wholly, putting Him first in everything you do.

Tell God you don't want to live by the world's standards. Let Him know you put Him first in your life, because you know that His ways are the best.

Dr. Venessa Battle

Guest Minister

Sunday, July 29, 2018

Dr. Venessa Battle is the Senior Pastor/Apostle of New Gate International Church in Duluth, GA and has been the featured speaker at prayer conferences, retreats, seminars, and revivals. Dr. Battle has released a new book called "Keturah Revealed," which is based on one of Abraham's wives, Keturah, and her children. In God's sovereign plan, He has determined the time and place of people. The scripture says that all ethnic groups have an inheritance in Abraham and that all the promises of God are yes and amen in Christ Jesus! Dr. Battle has a "now" word for the Body of Christ regarding the inheritance and destiny that ALL cultures and races have according to the word of God.

Join us in worship as we give praise, honor our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and receive an inspirational Word from God.
